

Kim Venteicher

Ames, Iowa 50010
kimberly@iastate.edu

E D U C A T I O N

MASTER OF SCIENCE, Iowa State University, August 1998
Major: Human Development and Family Studies

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, Iowa State University, May 1995
Major: Psychology

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS, Des Moines Area Community College, May 1992
Major: Liberal Arts

W O R K H I S T O R Y

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

CHILD DEVELOPMENT LABORATORY SCHOOL PARENT COORDINATOR February 2011-Present
Responsibilities include overseeing daily operations of all programming at the Lab school. Provides formal communication across all CDLS programs, facilitates parental access to information and resources, serves as a substitute teacher, supervises staff members, coordinates enrollment of children, manages billing services, provides tours for recruitment of prospective ISU students, alumni and other interested parties, and manages the Children's Library.

YOUTH & SHELTER SERVICES, INC. May 2000-February 2011
HEALTHY FUTURES & STORK'S NEST COORDINATOR/FAMILY DEVELOPMENT SPECIALIST
Responsibilities included coordinating and development of early childhood programs for children and families in Boone and Story Counties; supervision and evaluation of Family Development Specialists; facilitation of parent education programming; maintenance of grant responsibilities; networking with medical and human service subcontractors; program marketing and participant recruitment; provision of in-home services; collection, analysis and reporting of program data in verbal and written format.

ASSAULT CARE CENTER EXTENDING SHELTER AND SUPPORT (ACCESS) June 1998-April 2000
CHILDREN'S PROGRAM DIRECTOR
Responsibilities included providing counseling services to child and adult victims of abuse; advocating for children's rights; assisting in training volunteers; developing and presenting programs to community groups; coordinating the collection and maintenance of agency statistical data.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

TEACHING ASSISTANT/RESEARCH ASSISTANT September 1996-May 1998
Responsibilities as a Teaching Assistant included facilitating daily discussion groups to undergraduate students at Lab School; advised and counseled students; maintained course records; evaluated student performance on assignments; collaborated with course and department staff.

Responsibilities as a Research Assistant (Head Start Staff Development Center Evaluation Project) included developing and modifying research surveys; administering surveys to participants; analyzing data and preparing reports of research findings; managing office responsibilities; collaborating with colleagues involved in the research studies and the department.

R E L A T E D E X P E R I E N C E

SURVEY AND BEHAVIORAL RESEARCH SERVICES

January 2007-December 2010: Part-time employee in the Computer Assisted Telephone Interviewing Lab for professional research projects.

STORY COUNTY COMMUNITY HOUSING COOPERATION

October 2005-Present: Board Member for a housing agency providing services to low to moderate income families in Story County.

PARENTS AS TEACHERS PARENT EDUCATOR/SUPERVISOR

June 2003: Completed training requirements to become a Certified Parent Educator/Supervisor with the nationally-known Parents as Teachers Program.